Dear Ms. Sinram:

The National Republican Congressional Committee (FEC ID# C0075820) is in receipt of your Request for Additional Information dated October 28, 2009 regarding our 2009 May Monthly FEC report.

The line 15 receipts referenced in your letter from Friends of John Boehner and Nassau County GOP result not from payments made to these entities, but from payments made to Kevin McGrann. Refunds from these political committees were at exact cost, and thus represented the usual and normal charge.

The line 15 receipt from Campbell Holste was from a payment made to this vendor on 10/29/08, in the amount of $ 187,000, which was reported on a Schedule E (for NY-26) of our 2008 post-general report.

The line 15 receipts referenced in your letter from FedEx result from payments made during 2006 and 2007, including these listed below:

Date Amount

2/2/06 $ 108
8/17/06 $ 269
8/17/06 $ 421
8/17/06 $4,684
8/17/06 $7,313
9/28/06 $ 472
9/28/06 $14,188
10/26/06 $ 438
10/26/06 $7,620
11/28/06 $ 298
1/11/07 $ 365
4/19/07 $ 395
4/19/07 $ 451
8/2/07 $ 512
8/2/07 $1,331
9/6/07 $ 186

With respect to the receipts from the two limited liability companies: these entities are treated as partnerships under IRS rules, and thus these are permissible donations. We have now made two requests to both of the entities that they provide us information with respect to the individual members to whom the donations are to be attributed. Should any of the attributions to an individual exceed $200 aggregate, we will amend our report to reflect the applicable individual attribution(s).

We have refunded the $ 2,000 donation from Re/Max Almanor Properties. The refund check was issued on 11/2/09, and will be disclosed on our upcoming December 2009 monthly FEC report due on December 20.

Sincerely:

Keith A. Davis, Treasurer
National Republican Congressional Committee
